The International Dance Festival, Royal Albert Hall Qualification preliminary rounds, including the semifinal will be contested at the qualification venue. All selected finalists will be invited to perform at the Royal Albert Hall on the 3rd October in a type of matinee session, dancing to the music of the live band at the International Dance Festival. All events for Pro-Am and Teacher-Student on the 3rd October will occur and be concluded in the afternoon. This will allow for any qualified Amateur or Professional competitor to compete as usual in the evening session.

Dancers that qualify to compete at the Royal Albert Hall will receive tickets in the form of a Performers Pass upon announcement of the marks at qualification. The Performers Pass will gain entrance to the venue in order to perform in the afternoon session. After the afternoon session has concluded, all Pro-Am/ Teacher-Student competitors will be able to stay and watch other events in the Gallery. Please Note: Qualified entrants at the International Dance Festival, Royal Albert Hall Qualification who compete at the Royal Albert Hall are permitted entrance as performers to compete. Those entrants wishing to spectate all events taking place in the evening after the ProAm/ Teacher Student events have finished are suggested to purchase tickets at:

The idea of this event is to give all qualified Pro-Am and Teacher-Student participants the opportunity to compete at the Royal Albert Hall. Six couples in each age category will be invited to compete at the Royal Albert Hall, with two age categories sharing the floor in the final. Teachers are limited to enter with students in a maximum of three age categories in each style and on the table below must stay within option 1 or 2.

Teachers would be allowed to compete with different students in the A and C category, but not the A and B category. Teachers entering with Junior or Under 21 Students are only permitted to enter with one Student. Teachers and Students will be able to participate in Ballroom and Latin styles. For Teachers and Students wishing to enter in both the Ballroom and Latin qualifications, entry payment will be required to be made per style. As is required with all competitors, Teachers and Students partaking in Ballroom and Latin styles bear the responsibility to be in time for their performance.
